Students Receive Scholarships from Paresky Flitt & Company, LLP

Wayland, MA, June 22, 2010 --- For the second year, Paresky Flitt & Company, LLP, of Wayland, MA, has awarded college scholarships to two area high school graduates. This year's recipients reside in Natick and Framingham.

College costs are estimated to increase this year 4.4% for public colleges and 6.5% for private colleges, according to CollegeBoard. David Lorenzi, a partner at the firm, stated "Our scholarship program gives us an opportunity to help area students defray some of their financial costs for higher education."

Christopher Funnell, a Natick High School graduate is the recipient of one of the scholarships. He plans to attend Bentley University in the fall. The second scholarship was awarded to Sean Egan, a Framingham High School graduate, who has been accepted at the Isenberg School of Business at UMass Amherst.

Michael Okenquist, another Paresky Flitt & Company, LLP partner, noted "Not only were their achievements impressive, both recipients were very proactive in looking for ways to fund their education.
